

1 Daily family routines

Complete the questions. Use the following verbs in the past participle.

take • have • go ✓ • leave • read

Example: Have you already gone jogging?

- 1. Has Peter already _____ his breakfast?
- 2. Have you _____ the paper?
- 3. Have the children _____ the house?
- 4. Has Dad _____ the dog for a walk?

2 Irene's problem

Write the following verbs in the blanks. Be careful with the tenses.

work (2x) • have (2x) • live • can • be (2x) • call • ask • read • share • watch • stay

Irene and Margaret _____ colleagues. They _____ a full-time position at BCS International. Irene has a ten year-old son called Andrew and usually _____ in the morning. Margaret _____ alone and _____ in the afternoon.

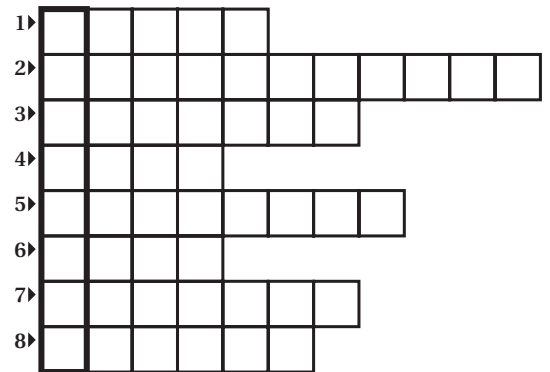

Yesterday, Andrew _____ a very bad cold, and he _____ to stay in bed. Bill, Irene's husband, _____ away on business. So Irene _____ Margaret and _____ if she _____ help her out and stand in for her at the office. Luckily it was no problem for Margaret, and Irene _____ at home with her son. She _____ a children's programme on TV with Andrew and _____ him a story.

3 Words

Guess the words and fill them in.

- 1. This P is how much you pay for something.
- 2. You need this A when you're not home to answer the phone.
- 3. This daily R doesn't change much.
- 4. People often don't have this T to finish all their jobs.
- 5. Some men in Scotland don't wear this T.
- 6. "What a good I!"
- 7. When I come home I listen to this M on my answering machine.
- 8. Every beginning has this E.

What is the 'mystery word'? _____