

1 A woman's life

The timeline below shows the events in the life of a working mother. Fill in the blanks with the correct forms of the verb.

I _____ (graduate) from high school in 1984 and _____ (take) a year off before starting at Upstate University. I _____ (study) there for five years and was working on my MBA when Jones & Assoc. _____ (offer) me apprenticeship. I _____ (meet) Jim the same year and we _____ (become) good friends. When things _____ (get) serious between us we _____ (move) in together. We _____ (live) together for two years when we decided to get married. We _____ (talk) about having children for a couple of years when I finally got pregnant with Josh. He _____ (born) in 1999. Melissa _____ (arrive) in 2001. I _____ (work) at Jones & Assoc. for six years when a friend at Medicorp _____ (tell) me about an opening there. It wasn't an easy decision because I _____ (be) at Jones since my days at Upstate University. I _____ (be) at Medicorp ever since.

2 Priory Gardens vocabulary

Here you can review new vocabulary from the text on Priory Gardens. Enter the correct word in the gap next to the definition.

inspection • grounds • warden • up-market • within reach • situated • communally owned

1. Something made or planned for people with a lot of money. _____
2. To look at something in detail. _____
3. located; where something is found. _____
4. When something belongs to all members of a group it is _____
5. (here) The area of land on which Priory Gardens is built. _____
6. A person responsible for the day-to-day operation of an institution. _____
7. Nearby; not too far away. _____

3 The way things are

Write sentences which are true about you or where you live using the cues below. Be sure to use 'have to', 'must', 'can't' and 'mustn't'.

1. (work on Sundays) _____ .
2. (call mother this week) _____ .
3. (clean-up before party) _____ .
4. (travel on business) _____ .