

1 The media and society

In the Student Book you looked at the media, particularly in Britain. List different channels and types of programmes from Unit 9 in the table below.

Type of Programme

Channel (UK)

Now use some of the names for different types of programmes to complete the sentences below.

- 1. I saw a football match on TV. I was watching a _____.
2. I get some of best ideas for meals from _____.
3. There's nothing nicer than watching an old _____ on TV, like an Agatha Christie.
4. I always watch the _____ at 9.00 p.m.
5. If I want more details, then I watch one of the many good _____.

2 Crime and society

In Unit 9 we also looked at vocabulary relating to crime and society. Fill in the gaps in the sentences below using the words you have learnt.

- 1. The s_____ said he had nothing to do with the crime.
2. At the t_____ in the court the j_____ asked for more evidence.
3. The first w_____ was the policeman who had seen him hit his wife.
4. The l_____ asked him why he s_____ the man.
5. He had a criminal record for b_____, p_____ t_____ and r_____ s_____ g_____.
6. After three days the police decided to c_____ him with murder.
7. D_____ a_____ is not only a crime, it is also a major social problem.
8. The w_____ -b_____ revealed that his firm was dumping chemicals in the lake.

3 More gerunds

You also looked in detail at the gerund (see pages 66 and 75 of the Student's Book) as it is a very important and useful aspect of English grammar. Put the words in brackets in the right form.

- 1. (Watch) _____ a good drama on TV is very relaxing.
2. I must remember (set up) _____ the video recorder for the football match tonight.
3. I stopped (watch) _____ the news on TV a long time ago.
4. This new sitcom is not worth (watch) _____.
5. He can't stand me (talk) _____ while he is watching TV.
6. He can't stand people who (talk) _____ while he is watching TV.
7. We were hungry so we stopped (eat) _____ something.