

1 Every now and then

Think about how you were/what you looked like/how or where you lived ten or 15 years ago. Make four sentences about yourself then and now.

- 1. I used to ... but now I ...
2. I used to ... but ...
3. I ...
4. I ...

2 World of work - What's my line*?

*business/profession

a Can you guess what Karen and Bob do for a living? (They each work alone.)

Karen

- > hasn't got a lot of money
-> owns a lot of paintings
-> works at home
-> goes to art exhibitions regularly

Bob

- > sometimes flies in a helicopter
-> loves animals
-> spends a lot of time outdoors
-> has a special medical license

b Complete the sentences with these words to say what you think.

may • might • can't • must

- Karen ... be a millionaire.
... be an artist.
... be a student.
... be a housewife.

- Bob ... be a dentist.
... be in the army.
... be a veterinarian.
... be an architect.

3 Do I have to?

Use 'mustn't' or 'don't have to' to complete the sentences.

- 1. We lock the doors at midnight, so you ... be late.
2. You ... go to school on Sundays.
3. You ... go to the doctor for a minor cut.
4. If you're German, you ... carry your passport if you want to visit Belgium.
5. If you're American, you ... forget to carry your passport when you leave the US.

Grammar Reference Section: 'Must/have to'

Note

BE: housewife
AE: homemaker